3. Mrs. Dhanya Varma, an accomplished Indian journalist, talk show host, actor, and TEDx speaker, graced the occasion of Women's Day as the distinguished guest and keynote speaker.

Mrs. Dhanya Varma eloquently elaborated on the profound significance of Women's Day as a catalyst for driving social transformation. Drawing from her personal experiences and life narratives, she skillfully crafted a platform for candid and transparent dialogues with the student audience. With a distinctive approach to interviewing, characterized by a blend of sincere curiosity and an engaging demeanor, Mrs. Varma fostered a dynamic atmosphere that deeply resonated with the viewers. The session revolved around probing inquiries and discussions concerning gender equality, the empowerment of women, and the underlying essence of Women's Day. Moreover, the event provided a spotlight for showcasing remarkable narratives of women who shattered conventional societal boundaries and achieved excellence in their respective domains, thereby igniting inspiration for generations to come.
