PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE:

I am incredibly happy to contribute a few phrases to the college's departmental newsletter for the Information Technology department. The technological change we are all going through has an impact on everyone. This transition will continue for a very long time, and Viswajothi consistently sets the bar high by imparting the necessary information and abilities to aspiring young professionals.

I wish the Information Technology department well with this artistic endeavour, which simply aims to showcase the department's strongest points and proudest moments in terms of creativity.
