2.Orientation Program for new Members

An orientation session on "An Introduction to United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI)" was held on 27th March 2024 at 12 PM for first-year UNAI members at the R&D Seminar Hall, VJCET. The session was led by Dr. K.K. Rajan, Principal of VJCET, who provided an insightful introduction to the mission and principles of UNAI. Dr. K.K. Rajan emphasized the importance of academic institutions in supporting UN goals, such as promoting human rights, ensuring access to education, and fostering sustainability. A total of 33 members attended the session, gaining a deeper understanding of how they can contribute to global initiatives.

SUCCESS STORY

One of the key activities of the academic year 2023-2024 was the orientation session on "An Introduction to United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI)". It successfully inspired students to engage in meaningful academic and social initiatives, creating a sense of community and purpose.

LESSON LEARNED

The event provided valuable lessons in global awareness, social responsibility, and sustainability. It gave participants a clear understanding of how academic communities can contribute to addressing global challenges. The event broadened the knowledge of students and staff, encouraging them to engage with important issues such as human rights, education, and environmental sustainability. It fostered a greater sense of purpose and community among all attendees.
